

Letter of Safety Commitment

According to Guidelines for construction of enterprise safety culture, local government and national production safety relevant regulations, as the first responsible person of the production safety, I promise to seriously carry out the production safety relevant local, provincial and national laws, regulations, policies and job requirements, positively implement the primary responsibility of production safety, take the overall responsibility of the production safety, enhance the infrastructure construction and promote the production safety level, strive to do well in production safety, reduce and eradicate production safety accidents and create a good safety environment. Our commitment as follows:

1. In accordance with national laws, regulations and standards on production safety, we will take the initiative to establish and improve the responsibility system, various rules and regulations and operation specifications for production safety and occupational disease prevention and strictly implement in place.
2. We will establish the management organization of production safety in accordance with the law, staff with a quorum to ensure that the management organization of production safety plays its functions and the management personnel of production safety perform their duties of safety management.
3. We will provide the employees with education and training on production safety in accordance with the law, require the special operators be employed with certificates as required; inform the employees of the dangers, hazard factors, preventive measures and emergency measures existing in the workplace and their posts.
4. We will completely eradicate illegal command and compellent order of illegal hazard operation.
5. We will strength the safety management of production site, inspect production safety regularly; We will establish and improve a system for identifying and controlling potential accidents and check the accidents potential regularly; We will test workplace disease risk factors regularly. We will rectify the identified potential accidents and report the serious accidents potential to relevant government department in time.
6. We will formulate emergency rescue plan of production safety accident, carry out rehearsal regularly and put into practice the emergency measures in accordance with the law.
7. We will provide employees with labor protection articles in line with national or industrial standards, and supervise and train them to wear and use in accordance with regulations. We will organize occupational health examination for employees before, during and after taking up their posts in accordance with regulations. We will pay work-related injury insurance premiums for employees in accordance with the law.

Chairman of

Sichuan Xinda New Energy Technology Co., Ltd